Investment Objective and Strategies

The Tangerine Balanced ETF Portfolio (the “Fund”) seeks to provide a balance of income and capital appreciation by investing in a diversified mix of equity and fixed income exchange traded funds which invest in securities located anywhere in the world.

The Portfolio Advisor intends to primarily invest in capitalization-weighted index ETFs (or index participation units), representing five distinct asset/regional allocations, including but not limited to: Canadian fixed income, Canadian equity, U.S. equity, international equity and emerging markets equity. Regional allocations to equities will be driven primarily by relative market size, meaning larger regions/countries will receive proportionally higher allocation than smaller regions/countries.

Risk

The risks associated with investing in the Fund are as described in the Simplified Prospectus. There were no material changes to the Fund over the year that affected the overall level of risk of the Fund.

Results of Operations

The Fund had net assets of $150 million at June 30, 2024 and $142 million at December 31, 2023. The Fund’s net assets increased by $8 million over the six month period ended on June 30, 2024. The change was composed of investment performance of $12 million and net redemptions of $3 million.

Investment Results

For the period ended at June 30, 2024 (the “period”), the Tangerine Balanced ETF Portfolio (the “Fund”) generated a total return of 8.8%. It performed in-line with the benchmark. The Fund’s blended index, 60%- Solactive GBS Global Markets Large & Mid Cap Index (CA NTR) and 40%-Solactive Broad Canadian Bond Universe Liquid ex MPL TR Index, returned 8.9% during the same period.

Global equities advanced over the period as represented by the Solactive GBS Global Markets Large & Mid Cap Index (CA NTR) returning 15.5%. Developed markets continue to show strength with most markets finishing the period near all-time highs.

Canadian equities ended the period in positive territory as we witnessed the Bank of Canada (BoC) become the first Group of Seven central bank to offer rate relief with a 25 basis point interest rate cut that brought interest rates down from 5.00% to 4.75%.

U.S. equities generated positive double-digit returns for the period while surprisingly the U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) kept interest rates at bay (no change). The Federal Funds rate remained steady between 5.25% to 5.5%.

The Fed has taken a wait and see approach on reducing interest rates. The Fed is especially wary of cutting too soon after seeing an unexpected rise in inflation earlier this year from 3.1% in January to 3.5% in March. The Fed is trying to balance the risk of cutting rates too soon and allowing inflation to persist.

Japanese equity markets also rose over the first half of 2024, despite the Japanese economy experiencing negative GDP growth, aided by a weak yen, improving growth in Japan’s export markets, and a steepening yield curve, which have all represented tailwinds for Japanese equities.

Despite the United Kingdom entering a technical recession, after back-to-back negative GDP growth reports, and the European continent more broadly experiencing lower levels of GDP growth, equity markets in Europe delivered a positive return over the period. Eurozone inflation has moderated from a peak rate of 10.6% in October 2022 to 2.5% more recently. Moderating inflation has reduced some of the interest rate risk for European equities.

The Canadian bond market, as represented by the Solactive Broad Canadian Bond Universe Liquid ex MPL TR Index, finished down -0.5% for the period. The 10-year Government of Canada yield trended higher, peaking in April, before drifting lower and ending at 3.5% for the period.

Within the U.S., the 10-year Treasury yield similarly trended upwards finishing June at 4.4%. While Investment grade and high yield credit spreads, as measured by ICE BofA Canadian and U.S. corporate indices OAS (Option-Adjusted Spread) narrowed during the period, widening briefly at the end of June.

Over the period, the Canadian dollar strengthened against Japanese yen, weakened against the U.S. dollar and British pound, and remained flat against the Euro currency.

Notes:

- (1) This information is derived from the Fund's annual audited financial statements, except for 2024, which is derived from the Fund's unaudited interim financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2024. The information for the net asset per unit section of the financial highlights are based on IFRS Accounting Standards ("IFRS"). The Fund commenced on November 10, 2020.
- (2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period.
- (3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both.
- (4) This information is provided as at June 30, 2024 and December 31 of the years shown.
- (5) Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses plus harmonized sales tax (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and the proportionate share of the underlying funds' related expenses for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the year. The manager absorbed certain expenses of the fund, and expects these absorptions to continue in the future to keep the MER within a target range. Such absorptions may be terminated at any time without notice.
- (6) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs and the proportionate share of the underlying funds' related expenses expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
- (7) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio adviser manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance.
